Do I need an insurance referral? What is that?

This only applies when we're out of network or your plan requires a referral in place to allow us to bill on your behalf. Without an insurance referral you're insurance company will charge you the out of network rate and your responsibility will be much higher. If you need an insurance referral, please contact your primary care provider (PCP) and let them know that you need an insurance referral.

INSURANCE VOCABULARY

What does it all mean?

DEDUCTIBLE

A deductible is your plan's agreed upon dollar amount that you are responsible for prior to the plan beginning to help pay for services. While working toward your deductible your insurance company continues to work for you by negotiating a lower rate or fee for services.

CO-PAY

A Co-pay is a set amount that you must pay per visit. Some plans have a copay and no deductible, some have a deductible that needs to be met and then a copay begins after the deductible is met.

CO-INSURANCE

Co-insurance is a percentage of the negotiated reimbursement rate you must pay once your deductible is met. A 80/20 is most typical, with insurance paying 80% of the negotiated rate and patient family paying 20% of costs
